Carla's Desk

Final Reminder !Calvary Semester Reports due date February 1st !!! Semester reports are located on the "forms" page at www.calvary-school.org . If you are unable to print these forms from the Calvary website please call or send me an email requesting your copies. I will gladly send you your copies.

Calvary School has it's own Facebook page where all of Calvary's families can come together to share ideas, ask questions, buy and sell their curriculum and much more. All you have to do is go to www.facebook.com make yourself an account, if you don't already have one, search for "Calvary Families" and send a friend request. This for Calvary Families only. If I do not recognize the name I will not accept the friend request.

Calvary's website now offers digital enrollment and semester report submission. Also, Paypal/credit card payments. You will still be able to print all forms out and mail them in via USPS and money order if you wish to.

Field Trips and Activities

Tour of the Belle Chèvre Farm and Creamery join us January 26 at 10am for a guided tour and learn the ins and outs of how America's best goat cheese is made.

This guided tours, include:

- A peek into cheesemaking with in-depth explanation by one of our cheesemakers
- Belle Chevre History
- Goat Petting and Visiting
- Access to The Richard Martin Rails to Trails
- Tastings/Samples at a Tasting Bar
- 9 minute Documentary Film – Tasia & The Cheese Revolution
- $12 per person and free for children under 4

About the Creamery

In 2013, Belle Chevre renovated an old cotton warehouse in the heart of downtown Elkmont, Alabama into a beautiful, artisan goat cheese creamery. For over 100 years, this building has been the heartbeat of Elkmont, formerly a storage warehouse for cotton to be shipped on the adjacent railroad (now the Richard Martin Rails to Trails.)

When: January 26,2018

Where: Fromagerie Belle Chevre

- 18849 Upper Fort Hampton Road
- Elkmont, Alabama 35620

Time: 10:00am (be there a bit early)

Cost: $12 (under 4 free)
